THE DAILY MEMPHIS AVALANCHE.

By Gallaway, Hampton & Co.) MEMPHIS, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1867. (Volume Nine—Number 205

THE DAILY AVALANCHE

General Sherman's Indian Commission passed Sioux City, Iowa, last Monday week. All well.

A German company has been organized in San Francisco to encourage immigration to Sitka.

The death by yellow fever of John Hamilton, son of General Hamilton, formerly of Texas, is reported.

Jacob Adams, Sr., Treasurer of Morgan county, Indiana, is a defaulter to that county in the sum of $15,000.

W. G. F. Shanks, formerly a local reporter on the Nashville Banner, is now editor of Harper's Weekly.

The latest advices from Mexico report Lopez still alive, Marques not yet captured, and the trial of O'Horan progressing.

W. B. Bourn, not many years ago a newspaper carrier at Providence, had this year an income of $25,976 at San Francisco.

The free distribution of outside lands among the people of San Francisco is a question strongly affecting local politics in that city.

New York has just finished a hearse for the morgue which is to go by steam, plying on the rivers by which the island is surrounded.

The attempt at revolution in Uraguay has been suppressed, and the ringleader in the revolt, one Vicente Briento captured by General Salazar.

Bonner has got more than $50,000 worth of voluntary advertisements out of his purchase of Dexter, as he knew he would.

Rev. R. F. Bunting, D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Nashville, passed through New York last week on his way to Saratoga.

The people of Richmond, Virginia, talk of erecting a monument to the memory of John M. Daniel, editor of the Examiner, of that city, during the war.

A New York correspondent says the Herald claims to expend a million and a half per annum, and the Tribune and Times about a million dollars each, in the publication of their journals.

It seems New York is favored with a daily prize fight. In the one Wednesday, one of the contestants, named O'Brien, was so badly mauled that it is doubtful whether he will ever recover.

The Government has taken an active interest in saving the life of Santa Anna, and has sent dispatches to our Acting Minister in Mexico to urge President Juarez to deal with him liberally.

Senator Morton, of Indiana, intends to make another trip to the Hot Springs, of Arkansas, before the meeting of Congress, and is sanguine of a complete restoration to health.

The New York Journal of Commerce says the disquietude prevailing in Europe is so much like that which preceded the war with Austria that a comparison is inevitably suggested.

The division of the Episcopal Diocese of Western New York will be followed by a division of the Eastern Diocese, so that the four Episcopal centers will be New York city, Albany, Syracuse and Buffalo.

By proclamation of Governor Bramlette, of Kentucky, the inauguration of John L. Helm, as his successor, on account of the latter's ill health, will take place at Elizabethtown, next Tuesday, 3d instant.

Jonathan Young, of Paris, Illinois, tied a terrapin behind him, on horseback, to carry it home from the field. The terrapin fretted the horse, and the latter threw Mr. Young, who died of his injuries next day.

Advices from Hayti state another revolution is supposed to be imminent. Dispatches from the English consul at Cape Haytian report that fighting has actually commenced, and that Port au Prince is besieged.

New Orleans has 86 churches, of which 25 Catholic, 20 Methodist, 12 Baptist, 11 Episcopal, 9 Presbyterian, 4 Luthern, 1 Congregational, 1 Unitarian, 1 Swedenborgian, 1 Protestant German, and 1 Sailors' Bethel.

Sergeants Sullivan, Morgan and Simmons, who were engaged in the destruction of Coffee's ranche, near our Western forts, some time since, were sentenced by court-martial to fifteen years' imprisonment in the Iowa penitentiary.

At a meeting of colored Radicals in Manchester, Virginia, on Saturday of last week, a speaker who suggested "that Grant and Johnson should be hung as high as Haman if the wheels of reconstruction could not otherwise be unclogged," was loudly applauded.

The Canadian darkey who demanded redress under the Civil Rights bill for being refused a first passage on a steamship at Richmond, has had his case decided by the United States Commissioner, who gave the opinion that as the complainant was a foreigner the law did not afford him any redress.

In Hudson, Lenawee county, Michigan, one of four women picking whortleberries, being separated from her companions, the other day, was seized upon and outraged by five ruffians, who left her bound and gagged, where she was found next day, and carried home on a litter. She died, however, in a few hours after reaching home.

The building, formerly the Catholic Orphans' Home, opposite the Southern Hotel, and adjoining the Olympic Theater, St. Louis, has been remodeled and fitted up at a cost of $60,000, and will soon be opened as a hotel on the European plan. A premium of twenty dollars is offered for the suggestion of an appropriate name.

Notwithstanding General Grant's efforts to have Gordon Granger sent to his command, the President has kept him in Washington, and of late has mentioned his name in connection with contemplated changes. Before Congress adjourned, Granger is known to have declared that it was an unconstitutional body, and, if he were Andrew Johnson, he would march a body of soldiers to the capitol and disperse it.

The Secretary ad interim of the War Department, says the New York Herald, must turn over his portfolio to civil hands. His ideas are too much enshrouded in a military uniform to suit the position. He has been completely unhorsed in his tilt with the President. Like a true soldier, he obeys orders in assuming his present duties. Let him as quickly as possible give place to other and abler brains, retaining solely the generalship of our armies.

In Cottrellville, Saint Clair county, Michigan, three married women, becoming jealous of a handsome young (married) Frenchwoman, visited her house on the 16th, with a male stool pigeon, stripped her naked, beameared her with turpentine, and committed other acts too disgusting to relate. They wound up by tearing a handful of hair from the head of their unfortunate victim, and left her in a miserable plight. Next day warrants were issued, and the female fiends fled to escape arrest.

General Rousseau, says the Chicago Times, when he asserted that General Sheridan's statement was false, did so deliberately, anticipating the results which must follow. General Rousseau will fight. General Sheridan need not feel the slightest doubt that General Rousseau, the moment he receives his challenge, will accept it. Knowing that General Rousseau stands ready to accept his challenge, will General Sheridan omit to send it? If he does so, he will accept the brand of liar as one which has been applied to him deservedly.

A large and enthusiastic meeting, comprising over five thousand people, was held at Paducah, Kentucky, last Wednesday, to consider the project of immediately constructing a road from the latter place to Jackson, Tennessee, connecting with the Mississippi Central, and making almost an air line of rail from the Ohio river to New Orleans. The meeting was addressed by General West, of the Mississippi Central, Samuel B. Thomas, President of the Elizabethtown and Paducah road, Judge Walker, of New Orleans, General J. D. C. Atkins, of Paris, and many other speakers, all urging the prompt accomplishment of the contemplated work.

William E. Robinson, one of the Brooklyn (Democratic) members of Congress, was twenty years ago the Washington correspondent, "Richelieu," of the New York Tribune, and was expelled from the reporters' gallery for a breach of privileges, in ridiculing one of the Western members, Mr. Sawyer, of Ohio, who was daily in the habit of seating himself behind the Speaker's desk and partaking of lunch—cold sausage being his favorite tooth.

A RECONSTRUCTED "SECESH" MADE JUDGE IN GEORGIA.

Early Reminiscences of his Judgeship.

The Augusta Chronicle says:

"John W. H. Underwood, styled Judge by the grace of General Pope, publishes a two column letter in a city paper, this morning, in favor of reconstruction. The laborer is worthy of his hire,' it is said; but it does not apply in this case. It is shrewdly suspected that some fiend in disguise urged General Pope to offer the position of Judge to Underwood if he would come out for reconstruction, knowing that he was like an old musket, more dangerous to those employing it than those aimed at.

"'I'd rather be a dog and bay the moon,
Than such a Roman.'

There is an anecdote bearing on the early history of this modern Judge quite illustrative of his storied thirst for office.

In 18—, about the time Governor Crawford was elected in Georgia, this disciple of Blackstone, though known to be thoroughly Whig in principle, abandoned the party, under the belief that the Democracy of the mountains would always keep him out of the green pastures and from the cool fountains of official life. But knowing the great personal popularity of his father, thought he would smuggle into the Cabinet of Governor Crawford on a letter from his father, who, on application, wrote to Governor Crawford in this wise:

ROME, GEORGIA, —— 18—.

DEAR GOVERNOR: This letter is to introduce my son John, a young Democratic offshoot of the Underwood family who has basely abandoned the faith of his father, and who now desires the appointment of private secretary under your Excellency. What I have to say in the affair is, that my son has greater thirst for office, with less capacity to fill it, than any young man of my extensive acquaintance. Respectfully, etc.,

W. H. UNDERWOOD.

ARKANSAS ITEMS.

The Pine Bluff Dispatch says: This county will send about four negro members to the State Convention, but sorry Rad.

The Fort Smith Herald learns that the judges of the Supreme Court have been removed. The Little Rock Gazette says: It is news in this quarter.

The Fort Smith Standard gives the result of the result of the registration in Franklin county at whites, 741, colored, 102; total, 843.

The Helena Clarion says the cotton in that region promises well. The plant is full and healthy, and, barring worms, will produce excellently.

The Fort Smith Herald learns from Colonel John Wallace, of Van Buren, that the boll worm, which appeared in large numbers a few days ago, have almost disappeared—the dry, hot weather has killed them off almost entirely. Colonel Wallace says the cotton crop in Crawford looks very promising.

The Camden Herald of August 22d says: On Monday last the dead body of an unknown white man was found near the farm of Mr. W. J. Threadgill, about seven miles south of this city, bearing evident marks of a foul murder.

The Washington Telegraph of the 21st announces the death of Dr. Nathan D. Smith, on the 18th, of a congestive chill, in the 76th year of his age. He was devoted to science, and from 1839 to the day of his death, twenty-eight years, he had recorded observations of the rain, temperature and weather.

Judge James Scull, an old and prominent citizen of Arkansas, lately died at his residence, in Pine Bluff. Judge Scull was a cadet at West Point at the time that Jeff. Davis was a member of the same institution, and was a room mate of his.

The Chicot Press of the 10th ultimo says: "We regret to learn that the cotton worm has made its appearance in this county; and, although no serious damage has yet been done by them, still the weather continues cloudy and favorable to their operations, and fears are entertained that the crop will be destroyed by them."

On Saturday evening last, says the Fort Smith Herald, a mulatto named Jasper Reeder, shot a negro man by the name of Jesse. The shot was with a small pistol, the ball entering the abdomen. The wounded man died Sunday evening. Reeder came to town and gave himself up to the city constable, and was taken to the guard house.

C. Thrower, Esq., has disposed of his interest in the Camden Herald to the remaining partners, Messrs. Clark & Elliott, and retires from the editorial chair. The change of policy in favor of reconstruction and fear that the military will destroy it, as it did the Eagle, if he continued as editor with his views against military reconstruction, has provoked this result. Colonel J. W. Goulding, associate editor, retires for the same reason.

Religion.

In looking over some old papers we discovered a copy of the address delivered before the Alumni of Center College, Danville, Kentucky, as far back as June 29, 1859, by our distinguished fellow citizen Judge Thos. W. Brown. It is full of profound thought, sage counsel, religious precept, and genuine eloquence. We can not refrain this Sunday morning, from giving our readers one of its terse and eloquent paragraphs, which in a few words defines religion, and gives us in language a description of what we all know to be true, but which so many of us fail so recklessly to regard:

It has long been recognized as a familiar truth, that religion, as a sentiment, is deeply embedded in the human heart. And it needs but a glance in retrospect, to convince that it is something beyond a sentiment—that it is a principle—an ingredient necessary to our race, controlling individual action, and shaping individual motive in every age, and at every degree of civilization. In lives amid the passions and affections of the human heart, indestructible—often obscured by vice—often desolated by crime; but vital, whispering ever to the erratic spirit, in "that still small voice," the counsels of virtue. Like one of those master productions of the artist's pencil, buried beneath the ruins of some grand old temple, the excellence of whose execution, the beauty and magnificence of whose design, the superincumbent rubbish, and the lapse of ages have not obliterated, remaining yet to attest the genius of the forgotten painter, and the unknown studio; so survives in the soul, however profound its ruin, this principle pointing to its Eternal Author, and bidding a despairing hope to trust in an Omnipotent God.

Singular Position of General Grant.

From the New York Herald, August 27th.]

The political position assumed by General Grant shows our great soldier in a new light. It is his first development of political genius; his first and final political mistake. The reply of the President has completely overturned him—outflanked him. Grant does not understand the crisis. He clings to Sheridan and forgets principles. Grant has given us one political essay; but he has given us already too much. His only hope of retrieving himself is to make public his private letter to the President relative to the removal of Stanton. Since Grant has thrown himself into the Radical hands there will be no difficulty in the nomination of Mr. Chase for the Presidency. It is now necessary for the country to follow up Mr. Chase's blunders, sink the country financially as well as politically, and commence a Radical negro millennium.

Plain Talk in the Connecticut Legislature.

During the discussion of the suffrage question in the Connecticut Legislature, Mr. Hammersly, of Hartford, said:

"Sir, the gentleman from New London has suggested that Congress may force negro suffrage upon us! and he seems to think we may as well have it now as to wait for Congress to force it on us. I would not go for the change under any threat that Congress may make. Let them try it if they dare. Let them send on their armed cohorts and their Generals to say to Connecticut, 'You shall have negro suffrage.' If we don't resist to the death, then, sir, our free institutions will be lost forever." (Great applause, which drowned the speaker's hammer.)

OUR EUROPEAN CORRESPONDENCE.

LYONS, FRANCE, August 14, 1867.

The French authorities, after, we presume, noticing in bodily, with which acrobats or gymnasts develop their muscles and measure their agility in lights, have determined to do away with the loose, ungainly looking and flabby, sloshy trowsers worn not only by the French zouaves and Turcos, but the entire line of the army, excepting the officers; and from this time the French soldier will look more comfortable, feel freer, and not have his ancles irritated by the pressure of several pounds of wool. The French soldiers are not required to keep step—each keeping his position in the line to the best advantage, and which is the most comfortable to himself. They are all equalized in hight, in their respective regiments, so that a little fellow, with short legs, is not forced to run with an individual who has the legs of a giraffe. They are constantly making innovations in France upon modern customs and style, yet do not seem to care about changing the ancient habits, manners and inventions of the past inhabitants. Cows are milked in the streets of Lyons, and the milk is sold fresh from the teat as goat's milk in Marseilles. Oxen in France pull all loads by the deinf yoke, being attached to the head instead of the neck, the farmers saying that, "as the strength of the horse is in his breast and shoulders, and you put a collar accordingly, so with the ox—his force is in his head, and therefore he should have that valuable portion of his carcass brought into full play." Again, they have the same ramshling diligences as of a hundred years ago, three horses abreast, the middle in shafts, the right and left ones in traces; and so they go better shelter, making good time and shaking your bile up, much to the disgust of a person who has driven a fast horse to a Bruce buggy.

To-day, celebrated by Catholics over France in commemoration of the Ascension of the Virgin Mary, is the grand fete of the year. It is also the fete day of the French Emperor, selected in imitation of his great uncle, who said, as his name was not in the calendar, he would make one of his own, and selected the day aforesaid. everyone in France has his or her fete day—taking the Calendar for a guide, and as there are more Maries, or Marys in France than any other name, this is the greatest of all fete days, and ten thousand palpitating hearts will respond to the affectionate embrace of connexions, relatives and lovers, who, with ribbons flying and best attire, are streaming over the streets, loaded with bouquets and flower pots—some containing small trees, that seem as if better suited for a wagon. The entire military of this district pass in review. Regattas, and shows, with every species of amusement, add to the excitement of the festival. One of the most exciting being the climbing of a greased pole, forty feet high, the crest of which is surmounted with a hoop in architectural display, pendant upon the same being different articles of little value. The successful individual reaching the top of the pole, is privileged to take his choice. It is an arduous employment, but strange as it may seem, some forty men and boys are (au naturale, excepting the fig leaves) contending for the several prizes, and all of the articles are generally won. They also have a tournament on the river Saone, each champion is placed as the bow of the boat, of which their respective friends take charge, as umpires, guests, etc., and at a signal the rowers ply their oars, each tilter having his lance in rest, with a protection on its point, and on meeting the shock results in the pitching of the weakest individual into the water, much to his discomfiture and the great delight of the many thousands of spectators who line the piers and bridges. They also have races, menageries, theaters, etc., and the day is one of such a variety of amusements that a stranger can't fail in being highly excited and amused.

As we stated in our last, the political horizon of Europe is clouded, yet it may pass over. Many think that all will be tranquil until next year, as the Exposition, that great peace measure, has ended all petty strifes, and is competing for mechanical and commercial advancement, which the whole world recognizes as laudable, and may be an impediment to future European disruption.

The silk crop is short, the grapes promising, the wheat fine, and the agricultural prospects of France good. Without war, she will advance commercially.

Leave for Amsterdam and Bremen this evening.

MISSISSIPPI ITEMS.

A grand tournament comes off at Oxford on the 2d and 3d of October. Major Kinloch Falconer, of Holly Springs, is orator of the day.

The Holly Springs Reporter says twenty-eight pair of twins have been born in Panola county since last Christmas. We believe Marshall can beat that—and most boys, at that.

The Aberdeen (Mississippi) Examiner says the amount of long feed saved in Monroe county this year will be sufficient to fatten a hundred thousand head of cattle. Cotton picking has already commenced.

The Jackson Clarion reports a favorable change in the weather, and that there is not a case of cholera in the city; "the citizens are doing all they can to prevent any other cases."

The Holly Springs Reporter learns through an order received from General Ord, that he contemplates designating the time for holding the election for the Convention and delegates between the 20th and 30th of October.

The Holly Springs Reporter says the cotton worm has made its appearance in every part of the State. In some counties its ravages have been serious, but in Marshall county, thus far, but little damage has resulted from their appearance in the cotton fields.

An educational journal for the State of Mississippi is soon to be established at Jackson, under the auspices of the State Teachers' Association. Its editorial conduct is under the supervision of a committee of three gentlemen, Messrs. John Hunter, H. Pierce, and W. C. White.

Giles Scoggins proposes in the Herald and Mississippian a simple and effective remedy of preventing worms in cotton. It is to quit raising cotton and turn your attention to corn, grain, fruit, hogs, cattle, sheep, mules and horses, etc. Good remedy, Giles.

The Grenada Sentinel, of the 24th ultimo, has the following, which is rather hard on General Acorn: "We understand that Hon. James L. Alcorn will address our citizen on the 5th of September next, in favor of military reconstruction. We want him to come on. "His speech will make more anti-convention voters than a hundred speeches against it."

A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes from Holly Springs, Mississippi, as follows: This county, Marshall, will give from four to eight hundred Republican majority. The Congressional Committee are doing us great good, by sending speeches and papers for circulation. They have sent about one thousand and they are eagerly read by the men of the South. All northern newspapers are listened to with the most intense interest by all classes of men in the South. The sentiments uttered by the Northern advocates of freedom are as new to the men of the South, as were those of the Declaration of Independence to the King of England. The seed being sown here by the Republicans of the North, through the agency of the Congressional Committee, will yield a rich harvest.

TENNESSEE ITEMS.

The Union and Dispatch says the first bale of the season has been received at the warehouse of Pugh, Moore & Co., Nashville, from the firm of McKinman & Lesueur, of Limestone county, Alabama.

The Morristown Gazette says upper East Tennessee is suffering much from a protracted drouth. The corn crop is cut short to a fearful extent, and much of the vegetation is parched to death.

The planters and farmers of Tipton county are requested to meet in Covington, on the 2d of September next, when and where an effort will be made to organize a permanent Agricultural Society for the county.

The Springfield Register, of the 29th ultimo, says the peach crop in Robertson county is a failure. The same paper says: "The drought continues, and vegetation is pretty well used up in this section. The late crops, such as potatoes and turnips, are suffering seriously for the want of rain, whilst fall has been dried up."

A. C. Copeland, private in company D, first regiment State Guards, has been tried by court martial for desertion from the service at Trenton, Tennessee, and sentenced to be dishonorably discharged the service and confined at hard labor for one year.

The Nashville Union and Dispatch says: "The completion of the Nashville and Northwestern railroad to the Mississippi river has already given a new impetus to trade from the counties lying between the Tennessee and Mississippi rivers. At a private boarding house on Church street, a few days since, there were seventeen merchants and traders from that part of the State, who were here for the purpose of purchasing supplies. These persons formerly went to Memphis or to St. Louis and Louisville."

The Cincinnati Gazette has a good word to say of all the Radicals whose names have been mentioned in connection with the United States Senatorship, except William R. Wisener, Esq., whom it refers to as follows: "Mr. Wisener is the gentleman who recently charged his State $7500 for services in two law cases, in one of which he did not appear at all, and in the other sent into the court a written brief."

A Good Investment.
AS administrator of the estate of J. M. Lyles, deceased, I will sell the lease of said estate, which is entirely interwoven as sole lessee of the Mississippi State Penitentiary. My brother's lease continues for thirteen years, under an act of the Legislature of the State. My object in offering to sell this lease, either in whole or in part, is to relieve myself of the responsibility of personal attention to the management of the business, which must, of course, center at Jackson, the State Capital, and to be prepared to control and require my immediate and constant supervision. I am a merchant, have a family, and am PECUNIARILY INTERESTED at Oxford, Miss., and am otherwise so situated that I cannot give the immense interest growing out of this lease that attention which it deserves. There are at this time about two hundred convicts in the Penitentiary. For particulars address me at Oxford, Miss.

Our Southern Widows and Orphans
IT is the duty of every true Southern person to cast in a mite to the support of those who have been left in a dependent condition by the loss of a dear husband or an affectionate father, who laid down their lives in the defence of our once glorious but now lost cause.
Led being impressed with a sense of this duty, I have determined to set apart, say one-fourth, of my net income for that purpose; and as my business in the publication and sale of the first general Southern Almanac, for which I have exclusive control of the states of Arkansas and Tennessee, and the counties of Washington, Issaquena, Sharkey, Yazoo and Noxubee, and all counties north of the same in the state of Mississippi, I feel assured that the good people of said section are willing and will assist me in my donation; and to this end I wish a gentleman and lady in every civil district, within the above territory, who feels an interest in the needy, and who will give a few weeks time, energy and influence in the business, to canvass their respective districts for our standard Southern Memorial Works. For such services we will allow a liberal commission on sales.
We wish the very best of citizens, and those who can and will take an active interest in our enterprise, to whom we refer to the following names, should they desire to make inquiries.

WANTED—THE PATENT AURORA OIL—WE WANT one man everywhere to study their own interest. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in each single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one half the price of coal oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the coal oil as the coal oil is to a tallow candle. Any lamp that will burn coal oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney—it does not smell—it will not grease or soak the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for its manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from the city of Memphis and bills while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than what we have stated. SUNDAY, : : : : : : : SEPTEMBER 1, 1867.

DURING the extra session of the last Congress, when the supplemental reconstruction bill was pending the action of the House, the Hon. W. C. ROBINSON, of the Brooklyn New York, District, most truthfully said: "We are playing political thimble-rig with the South; the lower that people have bent the knee, the more intolerant have become the terms of pardon; even kindly words from any friends of the South, on this floor, have been answered with greater indignity, till, finally, conditions are exacted which none but buffles would demand, none but cravens yield." The entire party, thus addressed, through press and leader, hurled back the charge with an air of offended Puritanical honesty. Reconstruction of the Government upon just grounds, they said, was all the harm they had at heart for the people. Taken up upon the hills of Vermont, this cry was echoed through the land to the Gulf, by the leashmen and whippers-in of the party. The triumph of their partizans in Tennessee, however, became the signal to throw off this wordy disguise, acknowledge the lie, and raise the tomahawk and scalping knife of Radicalism's true intent. BROWNLOW commenced the unveiling of its hideousness in proclaiming burial in an open end coffin to all Conservatives who opposed his election, and threatening confiscation of their property, in all cases, where they had discharged a Radical negro from employment; others quickly followed. BEN. WADE, of Ohio, now Acting Vice President of the United States, who, in 1856, fostered the idea of secession, upon the floor of Congress, in saying, "You cannot forcibly hold men in this Union, for the attempt to do so, it seems to me, would subvert the first principles of the Government under which we live," and who, previous to the triumph of BROWNLOW negroism, pretenued mildness toward the South, compared to STEVENS, and proclaimed himself a patriot for the restoration of the Union, is now on the most blasphemous, Radical rampage, throughout his State, ever known to have been conceived by the most abandoned and degraded political charlatan or harlot. His infamous lips utter such sentiments as that "Democracy will have to storm the Sebastopol of Heaven and shell God Almighty from his throne" before it can succeed against the Radical theory of ruling America; that all of the two hundred thousand of its opposers, in Ohio, are "damned traitors, serpents and vipers, penitentiary birds and sheep thieves," and that "if God Almighty was on the side of the rebels, he got most beautifully whipped and that's all." Thus he ranges himself by the side of BROWNLOW, and illustrates that the doctrines of Radicalism, held even by what the country has hitherto deemed the mildest of its followers, embrace all that is base in humanity and barbarous in politics. No longer than a few days since one of the black lights of this most terrible party, in Louisiana, reflected the BROWNLOW complexion and intent of Radicalism, in language no more atrocious and subversive of constitutional government than WADE is using in Ohio to his white sympathizers and followers. This negro besought his race not to agree, next year, to labor on the lands now controlled by the white men; he wanted "the land to grow up in bushes so as to get their lands, mules, plantation implements, etc." He went for confiscation. He said he "never saw a white man riding in a four wheeled buggy that he did not want two of the wheels, that he never saw a man with two mules that he did not want one of them, or with two coats. He wanted the white women to come to the washtub and the white men to the milk pail, plow and hoe, and to build up the black man and pull down the white man." In South Carolina there are forty negro emissaries, who claim to be sent thither by FRED. DOUGLASS and the less honest and respectable man, THAD. STEVENS, who are laboring for the accomplishment of Radical ruin amongst the blacks of that section. The ringleader calls himself Rev. NICK WILLIAMS, of Oberlin, Ohio. He has made many speeches, to hear which not only large crowds of negroes, but many white persons were present. He urges the negroes to vote for no one for office but persons of their own color, and to stick closely together; tells them that they are the most "powerful nation on earth." That "they and they alone whipped the rebs," and affirms that "ABE LINCOLN promised them forty acres of land, one hundred dollars in money, and six months' rations to commence operations, and that on his death bed he swore ANDREW JOHNSON to carry out this pledge, and it will be carried out. "Land we must have, or we will die." Such is Radicalism, and in such light is it held by the black, and sustained by the white, North and South. To these ends are such men as ALCORN, of Mississippi, urging its attainment, for it has no other. In what condition will the country be thrown if it succeed? Where will be that union, peace, protection and prosperity for which the United States Government waged a bloody war? What Radical knows, what Radical cares? What recently proselyted "rebel" can tell, though his own hide do escape the BROWNLOW or Congressional lash his quaking back so much shrinks from? True, indeed, that "none but bullies would demand" such a state of things, and "none but cravens yield" it.

THERE is scarcely a day passes that we do not receive one letter or more, from friends living along the line of the Mississippi Central railroad, complaining that the AVALANCHE cannot be gotten from the news agent on that route. For some months back such has been the case, and we have tried to remedy the deprivation our friends suffer, by every means in our power. A fellow by the name of WELLS, and a thoroughly dishonest fellow he is, is the agent on that route for the sale of papers. He stands indebted to us nearly five hundred dollars for papers which we let him have, and we have found it impossible to get him to settle. Several weeks since we addressed a letter to General WEST, President of the road, informing him of the facts, and requesting him to remove WELLS from the agency, and put an honest man in his place, who would discharge to us whatever obligations his business might incur, thereby enabling us to supply the AVALANCHE to those who desired it on the Central road. General WEST never replied, and still continues the swindler, WELLS, on his road. Our justly complaining friends in Mississippi can draw their own conclusions from this statement, and determine who is to blame. We have done our best with General WEST, and can do no more. It is possible he may not have gotten the letter, though certainly not probable.

THE afternoon dispatches of yesterday announce that it is confidently believed, at Washington, the President will shortly issue a proclamation of general amnesty to all who served in the Confederate armies below the rank of Brigadier General, and to all in the navy below the rank of Captain. This is right, as far as it goes, but what relief is such proclamation to bring us of Tennessee, whom BROWNLOW, with his renegade rebel Legislature and negro supporters, have disfranchised and placed beyond any citizenship, save that of being taxed and plundered at pleasure? Will the New York Herald, which has been so loudly clamouring of late for the move, as the remedy for the evils opposed to reconstruction, tell us how we are to be affected or benefitted by this State paper, when it shall have emanated from the President's quarters? Very many, in this section, would like to know, from some enlightened loyal source, as we have no recognized Constitutional marks to be guided by now in such things. We desire to have light on the subject, if BROWNLOW has not already lit on it.

Sickles telegraphs to Washington that he has never received any order revoking or modifying his Order No. 16, although it was well understood there that such an order had been sent by General Grant.

The steamer Guidon, from Fort Benton, passed Omaha City, Kansas, for St. Louis, laden with over half a million of treasure, and carrying over two hundred and fifty passengers. She belongs to Captain Dan. Able, of this city.

It is claimed by the friends of Seward that his services in the Cabinet, in view of pending negotiations for the settlement of the Alabama claims and the acquisition of new territory, are indispensable, and that his resignation would not be accepted even were it tendered.

The official report gives the effective strength of the army brought into the field by Prussia and her allies as 437,322 men and 110,192 horses, including 128 generals and 8,964 officers. The total number of wounded was 669 officers and 15,508 men; the total loss, 815 officers, 10,562 men and 6,490 horses. The number of officers wounded was relatively twice as great as that of private soldiers.

The New York Tribune, after extolling General Grant for declaring for universal amnesty and suffrage, finds that there is danger that it will be "cornered" by the New York Times. It now throws all principle "to the dogs," and "out Herods Herod" in the support of Sickles, Sheridan, and Grant. The spectacle is mortifying to those who supposed that Mr. Greeley had some pluck and principle.

The company who are authorized to erect an experimental half mile of elevated railway up Greenwich street, New York, have commenced near the Battery, placing the foundation masonry for the columns. The wrought iron superstructure is under contract, and in the course of about two months it will be placed upon the foundations. The iron guide for the return rope, placed below the pavement, is also being put in.

A telegram from Quebec announces the death, on Sunday last, in that city, of the Most Rev. Peter Flavian Turgeon, D.D., Archbishop of the Diocese of Quebec. The deceased was a most distinguished and venerable prelate of the Roman Catholic Church, and was greatly esteemed by all who knew him. Among the poor of his flock he made himself very popular by the kindness and charity which marked his efforts to ameliorate their condition. As a gentleman of great learning and as a Christian of unquestionable piety, his loss to the Catholic clergy and laity of Canada is a severe one.

FRENCH MEDICINES PREPARED BY GRIMAULT & COMPANY

Chemists to His Imperial Highness Prince Napoleon.

THESE different medicines represent the most recent medical discoveries, founded on the principles of chemistry and therapeutics. They must not be confounded with secret or quack medicines, as their names sufficiently indicate their composition; a circumstance which has caused them to be appreciated and prescribed by the faculty in the whole world. They widely differ from those numerous medicines advertised in the public papers as able to cure every possible disease, as they are applicable only to but a very few complaints. The most stringent laws exist in France with respect to the sale of medicinal preparations, and only those which have undergone an examination by the Academy of Medicine, and have been proved effective either in the hospitals or in the practice of the first medical men, are authorized by the government. This fact must be a guarantee for the excellency of Messrs. GRIMAULT & CO.'s medicines.

Dr. Leras' (Doctor of Medicine) Liquid Phosphate of Iron.

The newest and most esteemed medicine in cases of CHLOROSIS, PAINS IN THE STOMACH, DIFFICULT DIGESTION, DISCOLORATIONS, ANEMIA, GENERAL DEBILITY AND POOR MIX OF BLOOD. It is particularly recommended to regulate the functions of nature, and, to all ladies of delicate constitution, as well as to persons suffering under any kind of debility whatsoever. It is the preservative of health par excellence in all warm and relaxing climates.

No More Cod Liver Oil—Grimault's Syrup of Iodized Horse Radish.

This medicine has been administered with the utmost success in the hospitals of Paris. It is a perfect substitute for COD LIVER OIL, and has been found most beneficial in DISEASES OF THE CHEST, SCROFULA, LYMPHATIC DISORDERS, GRAVEL SICKNESS, MUSCULAR ATONY and LOSS OF APPETITE. It regenerates the constitution in rendering the blood, it being the most powerful depurative known. It has also been applied with happy results in DISEASES OF THE SKIN. Further, it will be found to be of great benefit to young children subject to HUMORS and CONTRACTION OF THE GLANDS.

Consumption Cured—Grimault's Syrup of Hypophosphite of Lime.

This new medicine is considered to be a sovereign remedy in cases of PETHISIS and other DISEASES OF THE LUNGS. It promptly removes all the most serious symptoms. The cough is relieved, night perspirations cease, and the patient is rapidly restored to health.

N. B.—Be sure to see that the signature of GRIMAULT & CO. is affixed to the bottle, as this syrup is liable to imitations.

No More Difficult or Painful Digestion—Dr. Burin du Buisson's (Laureate of the Paris Imperial Academy of Medicine) Digestive Lozenges.

This delicious preparation is now in use by the most reputed medical men in France in cases of derangements of the digestive functions, such as LOSS OF APPETITE, GASTRALGIA, ACIDITY AND FLATULENCY, DIFFICULTY OF DIGESTION, wind in the stomach and bowels, EMACIATION, JAUNDICE and COMPLAINTS OF THE LIVER AND KIDNEYS.

Nervous Headaches, Neuralgia, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Instantly Cured by Grimault's Guarana.

This vegetable substance, which grows in the Brazils, has been employed since time immemorial to cure INFLAMMATION OF THE BOWELS. It has proved of late to be of the greatest service in cases of CHOLERA, as it is preventive and a cure in cases of Diarrhea.

Ferro Manganic Powder, prepared by Burin du Buisson, approved by the Academy of Medicine in Paris.

A small quantity of this powder in a glass of water is sufficient to obtain instantly an effervesing mineral and gaseous water to be drank at meals, either pure or mixed with wine.

It is a most valuable medicine for persons suffering from Chlorosis, Stomach Aches, and for Ladies suffering from Difficult or Su

WHOLESALE DRUG BUSINESS IN MEMPHIS.

A Mammoth Establishment.

Memphis, in proportion to size and population, can, perhaps, boast of larger, wealthier and more substantial business houses than any other city in the Union. The taste and architectural skill displayed in the construction of hundreds of our larger stores have ever claimed the admiration of all visitors from other cities. Their height, depth and general arrangement, will compare with houses of the same character even in the city of New York. For stability, capital and enterprise, mercantile firms in Memphis are behind no other on the continent. As a matter of public interest, it is our purpose from time to time, to lay before our readers such details concerning the wholesale business of this city, as may enable them to form correct conclusions, as to the facilities to purchase fully presented in this market. New York and other Eastern cities, as well as Cincinnati, St. Louis and Louisville, can offer no inducements to wholesale buyers, not most amply afforded here. Let us take, for instance, the mammoth wholesale drug house of

MANSFIELD & HIGBEE,

301 and 303 Main street, as an illustration of our remarks on this subject, and a mere casual description of its proportions internal arrangements, capital employed, etc., will at once satisfy all that Memphis as a great commercial center of trade is fast making the Southwest independent of the world for many things of prime utility, which heretofore could only be obtained from abroad. Before the war we had few large and strong houses in any Southern city. We had become so accustomed to look to Eastern and foreign cities for everything, that no one apparently ever dreamed of trying to remedy the evil. Our own indifference to patronize any such establishment near at home offered a premium to Northern skill and energy. Of course Southern enterprise and manufacturer saw this, their golden opportunity, seized upon it, applied it to their own aggrandisement, and now rolls in wealth, the fruit of misspent means of the South. But necessity is the mother of invention and corrects evils apparently irremediable. Money that could only be abroad for the purchase of useful merchandise and necessities of life can now be spared no longer, hence capital there can now be used to advantage. Our own merchants saw hope of patronage and trade, and therefore entered into arrangements looking to an extensive expansion of their business. A want had to be supplied, and many of the most liberal of them prepared themselves or it by heavy outlay of capital, which has had the happy result of making Memphis equal to any other city as a wholesale market. But to return to above alluded to, and perhaps the largest in the Southwest. We will endeavor to give our readers some idea of what strides Memphis is making toward future commercial independence.

THE BUILDING

occupies a most prominent position on Main street, near the corner of Madison, and is perhaps the most stately and attractive in appearance of any business hall ding in the city. The entire structure is five stories high, with a depth of one hundred and fifty feet, and seventy or eighty feet front, more than half of which is exclusively occupied by Messrs. Mansfield & Higbee's establishment.

On entering the store you are amazed at the amount of drugs, medicines, paints, oils, dye stuffs, perfumeries, toilet articles, etc., etc., that meet your gaze. Vast banks of these commodities lie piled up on center counters, on appropriate places on the floor, or are carefully arranged away upon the numerous side counters and shelves running around the interior of the building, yet the who e arrangement indicates the highest degree of taste, system and ord r. The entire interior arrangements were made apparently without regard to expense, and exhibit a most splendid specimen of the decorative ar. The painting and frescoing were evidently executed by a master hand, as they exhibit in colors and execution, harmony beauty and brilliancy, without spoiling the effect with the boat display of gaudy flagrancy or tinsel, the whole giving a most pleasant effect to the eye. In a word, the entire architectural design of this most spacious establishment is exceedingly tasteful, and reflects the highest credit upon the master workman under whose direction it was wrought into the largest and most beautiful wholesale drug house outside of New York.

THE LABRATORY.

Nothwithstanding the stock of drugs, medicines, chemicals, etc., is immensely extensive, and apparently sufficient to supply the wants of the entire country trade, yet there is a large and complete labratory attached, wherein all kinds of chemicals, fluid extracts, and various other articles pertaining to the business, are constantly in process of manufacture. The working of this labratory is under the direction of professional and skillful chemist, and is, perhaps, more perfectly and safely managed than any in the country.

PATENT MEDICINES.

It is needless to more than refer to many of the patent medicines manufactured by this firm, as Mansfield's Highland Bitters, Mississippi Diarrhea Cordial, and Dr. S. Gilbert's Alterative, Healing and Tetter Ointments, Salves, etc., have a fame through the length of the land. Besides they are now preparing and putting up large quantities of the

a new preparation, but pronounced by eminent physicians and all that have used it as possessing extraordinary medicinal virtues. Their other preparations, such as Hungarian Balsam for coughs, rheumatic c oup, and Magic Liniment; Dr. Brister's Liver Medicine, Jamaica Ginger, Compound Extract of Buchu, etc., a e too well known throughout the Southwest to need even a word of commendation.

PAINTS, OILS, WINES, GLASS.

In keeping with the other large stock on hand, it may not be amiss to refer to the great quantities of paints, oils, wines, glass, etc., with which their immense cellar is constantly filled. These articles are of superior quality, and are purchased with a view to fully supply the trade.

THE PROPRIETORS,

Messrs. Mansfield & Higbee, deserve every credit for their efforts to place Memphis independent, so far as their line of business extends, and should meet at the hands of merchants and druggists generally a patronage commensurate with the efforts and energies they have put forward in the establishment of what is really a wholesale house, in the fullest sense of the term. Their capital is ample, in fact, extensive, and therefore their facilities for successfully competing with other cities give guarantees to the trade that Memphis can afford as cheap and good a market as can be found in the United States.

IT IS NOW THE MOST POPULAR MEDICINE.—And why? Because it is superior to all other preparations. We challenge the world to produce a medicine superior to "Dr. C. Williams', Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naptha" for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Spitting of Blood Bronchitias, Croup, Hooping Cough, Consumption, and all other affections of the Chest and Lungs. ### TERMITAL.

Frank King was yesterday fined fifty dollars for beating his wife.

We thank E. McCormick, Esq., Southern Express Company Messenger, for late papers.

Jerry Jacques was arrested yesterday for stealing $2 and a fine silver watch from the house of Mr. Goodwin, on Webster street.

Dan. Samson, a porter in the employ of Shloss & Bro., was arrested yesterday, on the charge of having stolen a nice pair of pants.

Jeff Pierson was arrested yesterday for stealing a mule and dray from the yard of Mr. Stevens, on Delloto street. Squire Lee had the case before him.

A negro named Snead was yesterday held on the charge of assault and battery upon his daughter because she would not bring him money.

Jack Poland, a negro fisherman, caught, yesterday, at Mound City, a soft shell turtle that weighed eighty-four pounds.

The friends of R. W. Lamb, S. A. Hatcher and J. M. Fewkes desire to express their gratification at the safe return of those gentlemen from the East.

At one place on Main street yesterday, no fewer than six different times, were ten dollar counterfeit greenbacks offered. They are readily detected, by observing that the feathers of the wings of the eagle are coarse, and Lincoln, in the vignette, very badly made.

The first bale of cotton brought to the Memphis market was raised by Wiuse of Randall, of Washington county, Miss ippi. It was classed as low middling, good style, and was consigned to Delap & Co; and sold to B. Robb at forty cents. It was picked on the 26th ultimo, baled and on the river bank on the 28th. It was brought up by the steamer Olive Branch. Mr. W. L. Trask, of the firm of Delph & Co., went into the field and assisted in the picking. He brought it up himself, and is fairly entitled to the honor of being the hero of the season. The price obtained is not a criterion, although it is considered a good augury. Mr. Robb, one of our leading cotton factors, was the purchaser.

A SAFE MODE OF BANKING.—It is notorious that there a periodically a financial panic that sweeps away, like dust, whole fortunes of banks, and prudent persons, who rely on the welfare of their wives and families and security for them in case of the death of the husband and father, will seek to make investments where their money a perfectly safe and where a good interest is certain. These conditions can be better secured in a reliable Life Insurance Company than in any other way. A man who takes out a Policy in the Southern Life Insurance Company is simply putting his premium in a saving's bank that is perfectly safe, that will make him a certain return for the use of his money, and will be surely paid back to his wife and children. There are special advantages offered by the Southern Life Insurance Company, not these statistics, which make it a reliable saving's bank, are common to all well conducted companies. One man pays a thousand dollars in bricks and mortar for the benefit of his wife and children. The house burns down and the family are left in need. Even if the house does not burn down it may not realize cash when the family need it. Another man pays a thousand dollars for a policy of Life Insurance. In case of need, the policy may be hypothecated for cash. If made payable at a time certain, it may give support when age or sickness has unfitted a man for daily toil. If the husband or father, in such a case, dies, his death does not plunge the bereaved family into poverty and distress. The Life Insurance Company steps forward at once, and thus places the family in comfortable circumstances.

Once in a lifetime only is such a splendid chance offered to secure your wearing apparel, and at less than half the former prices. Elson's entire retail stock must be disposed of, as they intend going into the wholesale business exclusively. Remember the place, 297 Main street, and stand not upon the order of going, but go at once and secure bargains. fs&t

THE GREAT BOOK AND STATIONERY HOUSE.—Some years ago, two young men of intelligence and great energy of character started a book, newspap r and stationery house in this city, and, as their business grew, they extended it by establishing branch stores in Little Rock, Helena, Vicksburg, New Orleans, Cairo, and a number of other important points. Their policy was at once just and liberal. They gave an interest in each store to reliable, enterprising young men. The employers of this system prospered, and grew rich. By and by dull times and reverses came. They wisely contracted their business, and confined their int rests to those places that could be more immediately managed. These business men are now carried on in this city; but while the outlying branch establishments have been contracted or cut loose, the main house here, No. 215 Main street, is being expanded in the line of its legitimate business.

Of standard and school books it has now a very extensive stock, and probably a finer assortment of light and ephemeral literature than any other store in Memphis. We refer to the great book and stationery store of Bleisch & Co., No. 215 Main street, whose advertisement will be found in another column.

SATURDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

The President Expected to Issue a Proclamation of Amnesty.

All Persons in the Confederate Service Below the Rank of Brigadier General in the Army,

And Captain in the Navy to be Included.

The Mill Between Jones and McCoole.

McCoole Winner in Thirty-Four Rounds and Twenty-Five Minutes.

First Blood and First Knock Down by McCoole.

An Immense Crowd of "Sports" on the Ground.

Jones in an Insensible Condition at the Close of the Fight.

CINCINNATI, August 31.—Dispatches from Borgenbark's Station, Butler county, Ohio, say the crowd on the train from Cincinnati started at three a.m., having on board not less than 2,500 persons, including members of the press from New York, St. Louis, Chicago, Louisville and other cities. Whatever element of the roughs or fancy was on board, it did not make itself obnoxious nor conspicuous. The proportion of respectability was in the majority. The morning gave evidence of good weather. Jones was the favorite for first blood, first knock down and final victory. At 8:45 the ring was formed, and at 9:45 Cusick and Donovan, Jones' seconds, entered the ring with Jones in fighting paraphernalia. The crowd at the last named hour seemed to number 3,500. Rufus Hunt, of New Orleans, was selected as referee; Dad Ryan and Jack Looney, both of St. Louis, as umpires. At 10:15 both men appeared in the ring, amid much cheering.

At 10:45 the first round began in sparring; first knock down and blood for McCoole. The fight was won by McCoole in thirty-four rounds, knocking Jones out of time from the first round to the thirty-fourth. Although Jones planted some heavy blows upon McCoole, the result seemed to favor the St. Louis man, for with his powerful blows he sent his antagonist to grass at every round, amid hisses from the spectators. The fight lasted twenty-five minutes. Jones will insensible ten minutes after the fight. McCoole left the ground with a fresh step and smiling.

SAVANNAH, August 31.—It is rumored here that a petition has been sent to General Pope, requesting the removal of the present Mayor and Board of Aldermen. A counter petition, signed by all the influential citizens and merchants in the city, to retain the present Board, has been gotten up.

WASHINGTON, August 31.—A special to the New York World says there are reasons to believe that in a few days the President will issue an important proclamation of amnesty supplemental to that issued on the 29th of May, 1865. It will not proclaim universal amnesty, but will enlarge the fourteen classes named in the proclamation. Among the classes excepted by the latter, but which, I am assured, will be included in the coming proclamation, will be all persons who shall have been military or naval officers of the pretended Confederate government who are below the rank of brigadier general in the army or captain in the navy; also all persons who are or shall have been pretended civil or diplomatic officers, or otherwise domestic or foreign agents of the Confederate Government; also all who have been engaged in any way in treating otherwise than fairly and lawfully, as prisoners of war, persons found in the United States service as officers, soldiers or seamen, or in any other capacity. The other details are yet to be arranged, which may delay the issuance of the proclamation for at least a week yet, but it is probable that it will be decided to pardon all persons except high officials, who may be on bail for trial before or after conviction.

The Cabinet to-day had before them a complete record of the proceedings between Generals Grant and Sickles, relative to the latter's course in North Carolina, in interfering in the process issuing from a United States court, and which eventually led to the prompt removal of General Sickles by the President. It was decided to publish this record, and it will be out in Monday's papers.

RICHMOND, Va., August 31.—Rapp & Co.'s tobacco manufactory was seized yesterday for a violation of the Government revenue laws.

A DISORDERLY DAY IN DE WITT, ARKANSAS.

Tom Quinn, the Noted Arkansas Renegade, Killed.

The De Witt Elector, of August 24th, brings us an account of a disorderly day in De Witt, on Saturday, the 15th inst. It appears that on that day Hon. J. P. Farrell, former Representative from Shelby county, had proposed to address the people on the subject of reconstruction and in behalf of the Union Republican party, and quite a crowd had collected from almost every portion of the county. It seems that Thomas Quinn and Tillett Connell had some misunderstanding some time ago, which had not been entirely settled, though Quinn pretended he had buried the hatchet; drinking and carousing, talking over the old scrapes they had and how he stood by Connell. At about 9
